Could Donald Trump be our next President? Would Trump like to be the next US President?

Three Vocal snippets plus a composite was used to create an overview of Trump's motives and intentions concerning a possible bid for the US Presidency in 2012.

Would Trump make good President? Likely with the financial situation we are in he could whip things into shape. The composite of his vocal print show a man with vision and someone "sensitive" the future outcomes. He works from gut level and behaviors not from the intellectual perspective of "what works in theory".

There is ample ego involved but I think that is secondary to his wanting to do what is right for a good cause. Because there is intention coming from sources outside himself, I get the idea that his running was an idea that was hatched at a strategy board meeting; with the real agenda well hidden. He is liked by both sides of the playing field: democrats and republicans.

It is my opinion that plan were make – maybe even The Donald himself – that he would run interference for both parties on a subject neither party can touch – Obama's eligibility for the Presidency. The group is attempting to put pressure on Obama's camp using Trump's influence and money. From other prints I have done recently, it is obvious that many Democrats want rid of Obama.

Obama was a great motivational speaker throughout his campaign but he has lost a great deal of his credibility; he is an inept President. Both parties want rid of him and Trump has volunteered to venture into territory that only he can tread. Anyone who attacks Obama in this way – whether warranted or not – cannot be looked on favorable by the majority of those who controls the votes. Trump has willingly taken on the role and he is aware of the consequences.

Will Trump continue to make a move toward the Presidency? Yes until all the dirt is out in the open. He likes the idea of running but it would be a step down for him. In addition, he doesn't want to depart from his "brutal business" image. He also knows and will be faced with his indiscretions about his women/wives, black hearted business deals and his contributions and support of both parties.

In addition someone will bring up his hair – if he can't face what's under his hair, he certainly can't face the issues of being President. Stupid but it will become an issue.

COMPOSITE showing a concerned citizen who is willing to put himself on the line to make a better future.

During the interview with Hannity, Trump was confronted with the fact that he has donated to the Democratic Party although he would be running on the Republican ticket. There is a large hidden agenda with this short segment that shows Trump as an emotional manager. Hannity's question put him in a position to show his intentions are to manage a situation. He can't come out as a Democrat or a Republican – not wholeheartedly – because he does not want to damage either party. The following graph show his response to the dilemma of showing support to both parties.

This one note dominant print indicates an attempt to obfuscate. The numeric representation of the same chart shows the real intention. The motive he is hiding is the desire to help support what is right no matter what the consequences to himself. He is willing to pursue a course that he knows will provide answers to many questions being asked about Obama, that can't be probed through normal channels.

The challenge and root of Trump's problem with Obama is Trump's inability to ever trust again once he has been used, abused or hurt. He will remember those incidents forever and act accordingly even if it seems that all has been forgiven. Not so, with Trump. He may not come after you but you will be forever more held at arm's length.

From his perspective, Trump is an information broker – not of “D”, see chart at the end of this Profile. He has the ability to bring facts to the forefront that no other candidate could dare touch. Trump feels like he can “take the heat” while most other politicians could not afford to go this route. Look for him to throw his support to a “fox news supported” candidate.

Trump also attempted to deflect the idea that he is just doing his for fun. It is not for fun, he is very serious; just for reasons that have nothing to do with his becoming President.

Hannity asked if Trump would run as an independent: The plan to use running for President as a ploy has begun to be attractive to Trump, especially since the polls have been very supportive. He is enjoying the “flame” he is creating. He doesn’t mind that lawyer-like move that puts him at the center of the controversy. He won’t back out of this tactic from any kind of pressure. It has been his intention all along just to push where others can’t. There is also hidden information in this snippet of the interview about his running as an independent; much like the question about donating to/supporting both sides of the fence.

The separation of the numeric levels shown below indicate hidden agendas but he is closer to revealing his actual intent here than with the previous question about his loyalty. Strong points in the numeric chart include D and D# (information broker, desire to provide help and support) and the note of A (management with spiritual values involved) both of which would make him a good leader BUT anyone working with him would need to be willing to help themselves. He can’t abide sloth. He wants stable, fair and just outcomes.

Trump on Obama: – Trump is divided here but feels that justice and fair plan must prevail; he is willing to use his reputation to even the playing field. Trump also knows that he doesn’t answer to anyone about his reputation, in his current position, and he likes it that way. That is a deterrent to him from seriously considering a run; he doesn't want the presidency bad enough to expose himself.

Intellectually Trump knows Obama is bad for the country, he feels Obama is making serious mistakes and is unattached/insensitive to the mess he has created. Trump finds Obama's plans and execution to be greatly lacking in honor and support for the citizenry. He feels that Obama is riding his personal agenda and that is he not providing the leadership people wants in a President.

We could do worse than Trump; at least as an interim person with business acumen he could reign in Obama's unwarranted monetary support to his gluttonous friends and supporters.

I don't know if we should even be exposing this brilliant attack from behind closed doors.

STATEMENT OF FACT: The information herein contains opinions concerning correlations between personality traits and frequencies found within the voice. The computer printouts are generated by a computer using fast Fourier transforms and voice spectral analysis developed by the Institute of BioAcoustic Biology – a non-profit research organization: SoundHealthOptions.com – 740-698-9119.

Thank you for taking the opportunity to experience the nVoice™ computer program. As you speak into the microphone, the computer will catalog your words into musical note patterns. Your print-out will reflect the twelve notes of the musical scale - C, C#, D, D#, E, F, F#, G, G#, A, A# and B; plus the octave(s) in which you speak. The notes, octaves and general architecture of your vocal graph are used to create a computerized nVoice Personality Profile interpretation for you. Each of these notes has general characteristics which are explained in the chart below. The database used for your analysis has been developed over the last twenty years as we collected data. We would appreciate feedback as to how you think your profile matches the REAL you.

For this particular type of vocal profiling, your emotions can greatly influence the interpretation. If you would like information about a variety of subjects, take several voice samples; keeping with one subject for each voice sample. Every print-out will be "flavored" by the subject you talk about.

Remember that each written report will reflect what you say as well as what you don't say.

Sometimes you will find conflicting statements on a report. This indicates that these same conflicts reside within your own personality. As you talk about different subjects you will be able to determine the conflicts and joys of each subject.
